

I am an XM radio user and find the service to be very enjoyable. To limit XM's ability to provide traffic and weather seems silly. We pay for the service, and they are willing to provide it. It's also a better service than commercial radio as it is uninterrupted by non-sensical chatter.